

BBdental Terms and Conditions

Last updated: 14 August 2026

1. About This Project

BBdental is an educational e-commerce project created to demonstrate how a business-to-business online shop can work.

The website does not accept real payments or dispatch physical products. Stripe operates in test mode, and all orders placed through the website are for demonstration purposes only.

The project is operated by Infinita Perfectio. Questions about the website can be sent to bbdental.shop@gmail.com.

2. Business Customers

BBdental is intended for dental practices, dental laboratories and other dental businesses purchasing products for professional use.

By creating an account or placing a test order, users agree to these Terms and Conditions. They also confirm that they are acting for business or professional purposes and have permission to act on behalf of the business they represent.

The website is not intended for consumer purchases or personal use.

3. User Accounts

Users need to create an account before placing a test order.

Users should provide accurate account information and keep it up to date. They are responsible for keeping their login details secure and should not share them with anyone else.

Accounts are intended only for people acting for a dental practice, dental laboratory or another dental business.

BBdental may deactivate an account if it is used for something unrelated to this educational project.

4. Products and Prices

The products, descriptions, images, prices and stock levels shown on BBdental are included to demonstrate how an online dental shop works.

All prices are shown in euro. VAT is not calculated or charged.

Stock levels may change when a test order is placed.

5. Test Orders and Payments

Users can add products to their bag and go through the checkout process.

Stripe runs in test mode, so users should only enter Stripe test card details. Real card details should not be used and no money is taken.

When a test payment is successful, the order is saved and a confirmation email is sent. Users can also view the order in their order history.

A test order is not a real purchase and no products are dispatched.

6. Delivery

Users can enter a delivery address in Czechia, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Poland or Slovakia.

A €15 delivery charge is added to orders below €50. Delivery is free when the order value is €50 or more.

These delivery options are included to demonstrate the checkout process. No products are actually delivered.

7. Order Status

Every test order starts with the New status.

A staff member can change it to Processing, Dispatched or Cancelled. Users can check the status of their orders in their order history.

These statuses are only used to show how orders can be managed in an online shop.

8. Cancellations, Returns and Refunds

To cancel a test order, users can email bbdental.shop@gmail.com and include their order number. A staff member can then mark the order as Cancelled.

As no real payments are taken and no products are delivered, refunds and returns do not apply.

9. Website Availability

BBdental is still being developed, so the website may change over time.

The website may sometimes be unavailable because of updates or technical issues. Test accounts, orders and other project data may also be changed or removed during development.
